

CPT Caleb A. Tallent is a native of Dayton, Tennessee. He earned a bachelor's degree from The University of Tennessee and Master's degree from Webster's University.

CPT Tallent commissioned as a Second Lieutenant in July 2008, from Officer Candidate School. He is a graduate of the Basic Officer Leadership Course, Engineer Basic Course, and the Engineer Captains Career Course. His first assignment as an officer was with I CORPS at Fort Lewis, Washington serving as Assistant S-3 until being selected as PSD Platoon Leader in Iraq with HQ HHC I CORPS in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom. He then served as Executive Officer of HHC I CORPS upon returning. His next assignment took him to Kabul, Afghanistan where he served as IJC CJOC Battle Captain until being selected to serve as aide-de-camp for the Deputy Chief of Staff for Stability Operations. He then was sent on assignment with the historic 4BCT "Currahee" of the 101st Airborne Division to Gardez, Afghanistan where he served as the Executive Officer and second in command of an Engineer SFAAT team responsible for training and development of an Afghan National Army Engineer Battalion. Upon returning CPT Tallent served as the 4th Brigade Engineer until unit deactivation where he was assigned as a plans Officer within the Engineer cell with 1BCT, 101st Airborne Division. In September 2014, CPT Tallent assumed command of the Headquarters and Headquarters Company, United States Army Garrison.

CPT Tallent's awards and decorations include the Bronze Star Medal, Joint Service Commendation Medal, ARCOM with 2 oak leaf clusters, Joint Meritorious Unit Award, Meritorious Unit Commendation, the National Defense Service Medal, Afghanistan Campaign Medal, Iraqi Campaign Medal, Global War on Terrorism Medal, Overseas Service Ribbon with 2 devices, NATO Medal, The Air Assault Badge, and The Combat Action Badge.

CPT Tallent lives in Northern Virginia with his wife and daughter.